FOOTBALL

Coach Brian Hayes' football squad dropped their second game in a row and their third game in five decisions last Saturday, losing 26-9 to Loyola College Warriors out at Loyola field.

The Georgians will get a chance to avenge the defeat this weekend when they close out their 1971 Quebec University Athletic Association schedule against Loyola.

The game is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. at Verdun Stadium.

It was the inability of the offence to move the ball with consistent drive that cost the Georgians their game against the Warriors.

It was late in the third quarter that the Georgians netted their lone TD when rookie fullback Alvin Johns cracked across the goal-line from one yard out.

With the convert, the Georgians trailed only by 10 points, 18-8 and a single early in the fourth quarter by Ron Goldenberg cut the Warriors advantage to nine.

Then for a while, it looked like the Georgians could pull the game out.

But a leg injury suffered by Goldenberg on an end-around mid-way through the final period. Any momentum the Georgians had seemed to sag at that point and before the final gun sounded, Loyola had another eight points on the board.

ROOKIES SET FOR GEORGIAN OPENING

In the last 8 years the Sir George Williams Georgian Hockey squad has won their league championship five times. In the last two years, however the Georgians have been shutout and arch rival Loyola have managed to capture the league title. Last season Paul Arsenault, the Georgian head coach and Athletic Director, thought he had a club that would give Loyola a traditional battle for league honors. However, shortly after the two teams staged one of their old time battles won by Loyola 2-1 on power play goals, the Georgians were hit with injuries which quickly eliminated them from all chance of contention.

Lack of depth was the major culprit last season and once the Georgians lost potential all-stars, Ken Ekins, Phil Scheuer and John Murray, all opposition teams had to do was concentrate on stopping all-star defenseman Mike McNamara. Despite the losses the Georgians still retained respectability with an overall record of 12 wins - 16 losses and 2 ties. Ten of their losses were by a one goal deficit.

The Georgians went on a major recruiting job over the summer months and this week the first step in a major rebuilding job will have been completed with the appearance in Georgian uniforms of 13 new faces including 5 defensemen and 9 forwards. The newcomers will join forces with 7 returning lettermen to form what many observers feel may be potentially the strongest Georgians team since the Bob Berry era.

Most impressive newcomers during training camp were Rory McKay a former leading scorer with the St. Jerome Al's, winger Don Atkinson from the Verdun Maple Leafs, defensemen Bill Hattem of the Rosemount Nationals, George Tower, rangy defense star from the West Island Flyers and Mark Shewchuck, a tough left winger from the Montreal Industrial League. Shewchuck has been the biggest surprise. Without any Junior Hockey experience he is rated possibly the best new face of all. Other rookies winning starting positions are Phil Turner a fast right winger from West Island, Mario Cuttini, young defensive star with Boucherville Junior B's last year, Mike Kucyniak last year's Lachine Rapids' M.V.P. and Chuck Quenneville, shifty center man from the Dorval Junior B Jets.

DEPTH NO PROBLEM

The Georgians have more than just front line people this year. Backing up the starters are rookies Rick Moore, a #1 draft choice from Midget Hockey last year, Grant Sheriffs from the Westmount Senior League and Daniel Thibault, a twenty goal scorer with LaSalle Junior B's last year. In addition the Georgians have 10 other players with their Junior Varsity team ready to step into any available position.

LETTERMEN RETURN

The Georgians also have a good crew of returning players this year. Included are Mike McNamara - All Canadian Honourable mention last year---Bernie Wolfe Rookie of the year goalkeeper last season---John Murray 33 goal scorer two years ago---Ken Ekins and Tom Price two experienced high scoring centers and winger Brian Bedard and Barry Cullen.

BEST SCHEDULE

The Georgians schedule this year should give them every opportunity to gain needed experience and prove themselves against the best. Beside regular league fixtures the Georgians have schedule exhibitions against some of the top College teams in Canada. Included are St. F.X., St. Mary's, U. of P.E.I., Toronto Blues, Queen's Golden Gaels, Clarkson and St. Lawrence and Ottawa University.

JUNIOR CANADIANS GAME SET

Another exhibition of note will be that played against the Montreal Junior Canadians. The game is set for January 25, 1972, at the Pointe Claire arena and should be a good indicator of the relative strength of College Hockey compared to the Junior game.

SOCCER

The Soccer Georgians evened their won-lost record at 2-2 when they defeated College Militaire Royale 4-1 in St. Jean.

Miguel Agostino booted three goals for Ron Licorish's squad.

The Georgians next game will be this Friday when they play Laval University Rouge et Or at University or Montreal Stadium at 8:30 p.m.

BASKETBALL

A new coach, some experienced ball players and permanent home court.

Hopefully, those three items will be the ingredients of a successful basketball season at Sir George.

Wilf Jackson, a former star guard with the Garnet and Gold Cagers, has taken over the varsity squad after leading the Georgian jay-vees to a title for the league title last year.

Last year was an unqualified disaster for basketball at the downtown school as the Georgians were only able to muster two league wins.

But coach Jackson has the benefit of having three Americans on the squad and the return of most of the top ball players from last years squad.

Probably the most impressive newcomer to date has been guard Tom Brethel, a slick ball-handler from New York. Brethel and Cary Braiver, another New Yorker, should add the needed speed in the back court.

Another new comer is forward Mike Hickey, who should add some toughness up front. Hickey played last season for St. Michael's College in Vermont.

Among top returnees to the hand court squad are Jeff Neeman, a nifty guard who was an outstanding high school player, Terry O'Brien, a leading scorer last season and a former M.V.P., as well as Art McQuade, a six foot, one inch forward.

The Georgians, who will be playing all their home games at Loyola College Gym this season, open their 1971-72 schedule the weekend of November 12 when they travel to Albany to play in the annual Can-Am tournament with MacDonald College, Albany College of Pharmacy and Albany Business College.

They play their first Quebec University Athletic Association game at McGill University, Tuesday, November 16, 1971.
